ANNOUNCEMENTS:

-Lost and Found will be at the registration area in the Gym. If you find anything that is not yours please turn it in to one of the workers at that area.

-OPEN HOUSE: @ the Conference office on Wednesday, April 8, 2009 from 1-4pm. Come and see the office and also what kind of materials are available to assist you and your congregation or study group in your service to the Lord. The house is located directly east of the playground in the east parking lot of the school.

-Refreshments will occur after each evening service in the Gym. This is a wonderful time to fellowship with the saints. Please plan on staying and enjoying the extra time together.

-The cost of the lunches is $3.00 per person per meal. Payment will be made at the time of the meal. Lunches are served in the Sorenson room from noon to 1:30 daily, Monday through Thursday.

-Brother Paul Gage is the conference manager if you need assistance of any kind throughout the week. He will be giving the nightly announcements after the evening worship services.

-If you haven’t registered yet, please fill out a form at the registration area in the gymnasium. There is no cost to register. Notebooks cost $10 (to offset the cost of the materials). All of the expenses for this week of conference will be offset by the nightly offerings.

-Daily Tidings will be available before 10 AM at both the registration area and the main foyer desk.

-PANCAKE DINNER @ Living Hope (just south of Chrysler and 23rd St.) from 4-7pm Tuesday, April 7 sponsored by the Lexington Restoration branch YOUTH. The cost is $5 per person and anyone under 10 is FREE!

PLEASE PASS THE WORD

Encourage your friends and family to come and be blessed at our evening worship services.

These are great opportunities for us to come together as saints and worship in a larger cooperative setting. These chances DO NOT come along that often so plan on being there every evening through Thursday night.
