PARLIAMENTARY GUIDELINES

BASIC PRINCIPLES

Only one matter shall be considered at a time (keep it clear)

No one can speak until recognized by the presiding officer.

No one can speak a second time, on the same issue, as long as another wants to speak for the first time.

The presiding officer should try to alternately recognize speakers with opposing points view.

Each group should have a Constitution and bylaws that specifies the quorum and any modifications of basic parliamentary procedure.

TRADITIONAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

Call to order and quorum check

Minutes of previous meeting

Committee reports (standing & special)

Unfinished business

New business

Announcements

Adjournment

MOTION vs RESOLUTIONS

A main motion is an actionable matter, which specifies what the group will do in the future.

A resolution is a formal statement of opinion about a matter outside the jurisdiction of the group.

AMENDMENTS

Amendments should be “relevant” but can also contradict the “intent” of the main motion or resolution.

Only two amendments can be on the floor at the same time: one to amend the main motion or resolution and one to amend the amendment. Additional amendments must wait until at least one of the two is disposed of.

Amendments should be voted on before the main motion or resolution is voted on. If an amendment is tabled or postponed, the applicable main motion or resolution should be tabled or postponed.

VOTING PROCEDURES

Methods of voting: vocal (aye or nay), showing hands, standing, roll call or secret ballot.

The method of voting may be specified in the bylaws or chosen by the presiding officer. A group may overturn the bylaws method by a 2/3 vote on a main motion that specifies a different method, or it may overturn the choice of the presiding officer by a majority vote on such a motion.

Abstentions are group members present at a meeting but not voting, and abstentions do not affect voting. E.g., In a group of 1,000 members: 2 in favor, 1 opposed and 997 abstentions would be both a majority and 2/3 vote for the matter voted on. The presiding officer, if a member of the group, can vote at any time if the bylaws don't specify otherwise. The presiding officer can vote to break ties, or to create ties (and thus defeat a motion). If not a member of the group, the presiding officer should not vote at any time.

To stop debate and proceed to the voting, a group can pass the “previous question” (2/3 vote), or a member of the group can “call the question” (unanimous consent of the group), or the presiding officer can ask for a vote (also unanimous consent of the group).

APPEALS

Decisions of the presiding officer are limited by the will of the group. Any “Chair” decision may be overturned by “appealing the decision of the chair.” The majority vote determines the decision, even if some members of the group disagree.

INFORMALITY

Formal procedures require a motion or resolution, properly made and seconded, before debate begins on the issue. Some informal groups discuss the topic first, and the motion or resolution is formulated during discussion. The presiding officer should allow debate, amendments, etc., in both procedures.

SIMPLE CHART OF MOTION

Motions are ranked from bottom to top. When any motion is immediately pending, the motions above it are in order; those below it are out of order.

ADJOURN	Requires 2 nd			Majority
RECESS	Requires 2 nd		May Amend	Majority
TABLE	Requires 2 nd			Majority
PREVIOUS QUESTION	Requires 2 nd			2/3 Vote
LIMIT DEBATE	Requires 2 nd		May Amend	Majority
POSTPONE DEFINITELY	Requires 2 nd	May Debate	May Amend	Majority
REFER	Requires 2 nd	May Debate	May Amend	Majority
AMEND THE AMENDMENT	Requires 2 nd	May Debate		Majority
AMEND THE MOTION	Requires 2 nd	May Debate	May Amend	Majority
POSTPONE INDEFINITELY	Requires 2 nd	May Debate	May Amend	Majority
OBJECT TO CONSIDERATION	Before debate begins	No Debate		2/3 Vote
MAIN MOTION	Requires 2 nd	May Debate	May Amend	Majority

HOW TO MAKE MOTIONS

- 1) "I move that _____."
- 2) "I object to the consideration of this motion." (Must be BEFORE ANY DEBATE. YOU DO NOT NEED TO BE RECOGNIZED BY THE CHAIR.)
- 3) "I move that we postpone this matter indefinitely." (A motion to kill.)
- 4) "I move that we amend the motion by _____." OR "I move that we strike out _____ and insert _____." OR "I move a substitute for paragraph _____."
- 5) "I move that we amend the amendment by _____."
- 6) "I move that this matter be referred to a committee made up of _____."
- 7) "I move that we postpone action on this matter until _____."
- 8) "I move that we limit debate on the entire question to _____ more minutes." OR "I move that each speaker be limited to _____ minutes," ETC.
- 9) "I move the previous question." OR "I call for the question on the entire matter before us."
- 10) "I move that we lay the matter on the table." (This action tables ALL pending business.)
- 11) "I move that we have a _____ minutes recess."
- 12) "I move that we adjourn."

In formal parliamentary procedure, motions to limit debate and recess are not debatable and only amendments of motions to adjourn and fix time of next meeting are debatable.
