We Truly Are Made of Light = Light of Christ in every man
Quantum Physics in 1830

Sec. 85:3a And the light which now shineth, which giveth you light, is through him who enlighteneth your eyes, which is the same light that quickeneth your understandings; which light proceedeth forth from the presence of God, to fill the immensity of space.

3b The light which is in all things; which giveth life to all things; which is the law by which all things are governed; even the power of God who sitteth upon his throne, who is in the bosom of eternity, who is in the midst of all things.

Physics Central & Quantum Physics

We Are Made of Light

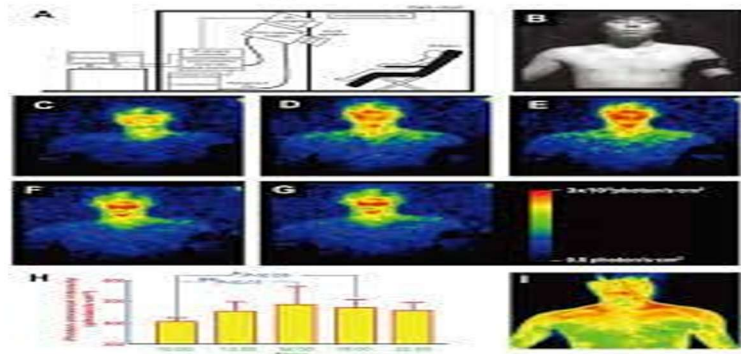

Russian Scientist = Dr. Popp exclaims, "We now know, today, that man is essentially a being of light."

Increasingly science agrees: we are more than the atoms and molecules that make up our bodies, but beings of light as well.

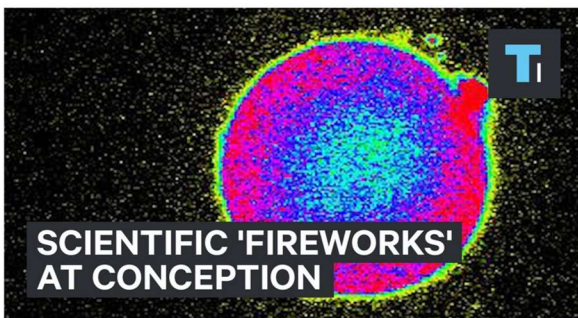

- If our bodies, at least metaphorically, are made of frozen light, they maintain the characteristics of light, which means they have frequency.
- Matter then may be thought of as light of a higher density. Thus, drawing on the implications of modern physics,
- we can conclude that human beings are made of light held in matter.

The Invisible World

Colossians 1:16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him.

Natural man can perceive only the visible world. With the power of the Holy Spirit and through the gifts of the gospel a person may participate in the “invisible” or the “unseen world”. Ray Zinser “The Word of Christ” p. 99

Today with the new microscopes and telescopes we can see more of the invisible world than in any other generation.

Yet there is that spiritual realm that no instrument of man can perceive, it is revealed only by the Holy Spirit of God. That is why we must stay attuned to that Spirit through, study, fasting and prayer.

Invisible Powers

Joseph Smith indicated that the evil power were also part of the “Unseen” world.

Joseph’s experience in the grove, where a thick darkness came over him, was proof of the power of a dark unseen world. Church History Vol. 1 p.9

This experience shows the two opposing forces in the world, righteousness and unrighteousness or evil. Most of the time these forces are invisible although we may see and experience the results of them moving.

We live in a battleground and daily we make decisions as to which side we pledge our allegiance.

DC 90:6a The glory of God is intelligence, or, in other words, light and truth; and light and truth forsaketh that evil one.

6b Every spirit of man was innocent in the beginning, and God having redeemed man from the fall, men became again in their infant state, innocent before God.

6c And that wicked one cometh and taketh away light and truth, through disobedience, from the children of men, and because of the tradition of their fathers.

Genesis 3:5 Yea, even the devil, the father of all lies, to deceive, and to blind men, and to lead them captive at his will, even as many as would not hearken unto my voice.

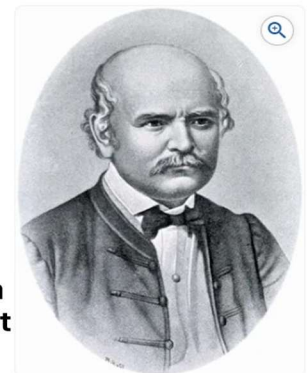

The invisible World Not Accepted

Ignaz Semmelweis (born July 1, 1818, Buda, Hungary, Austrian Empire [now Budapest, Hungary]—died August 13, 1865, Vienna, Austria) was a Hungarian physician who discovered the cause of puerperal (childbed) fever and introduced antisepsis into medical practice.

He concluded that students who came directly from the dissecting room to the maternity ward carried infection to healthy mothers. He ordered the students to wash their hands in a solution of chlorinated lime before each examination.

Under these procedures, the mortality rates in the first division dropped from 18.27 to 1.27 percent, and in March and August 1848 no woman died in childbirth in his division

His theory although proven was rejected by the medical community. He was seen as a nuisance and eventually lost his position. Years later his germ theory was finally accepted, but by then, he had been driven out of the medical field and destroyed.

Genesis 5:44 And thus the gospel began to be preached from the beginning, being declared by holy angels, sent forth from the presence of God; and by his own voice, and by the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Alma 16:145 And now, he imparteth his word by angels, unto men; yea, not only men, but women also. 146 Now this is not all: little children do have words given unto them many times, which confound the wise and the learned.

Today the Invisible World is a Busy Place

Read the Bible or Book of Mormon and you will read about Miracles over and over again but they do not take place just in the past. Today there are many miracles everyday.

The work of God goes forward, many times by miraculous means, although we may not always see it or recognize it.

In recent years through the power of God, by miraculous means, many people in Africa have been brought into the church, also, in Nepal India.

Hal, my husband, was changed by the power of the Holy Spirit flowing through him. He was transformed made new, given the gift of love.

I would not have any of my 3 daughters without the intervention of God. Each of them have been at deaths door and saved by miraculous means.

This very ministry, of providing classes for the women of the church came as a response to God speaking: “The women of the church need classes”

Our God is a God of miracles and today He is moving around the world to save his children both physically and spiritually.

The Invisible World at Work Today

Many Muslims around the world report encountering Jesus in dreams or visions, often leading to profound spiritual experiences and, in some cases, conversion to Christianity.

Overview of the Phenomenon

Muslims experiencing visions or dreams of Jesus is a documented phenomenon across various regions, including Gaza, Egypt, Iran, Indonesia, and Nigeria. These experiences often occur when individuals are seeking spiritual guidance, facing personal crises, or praying intensely, even without prior knowledge of the Christian gospel. The visions are described as vivid and emotionally powerful, sometimes involving direct communication from Jesus, who may invite the person to follow Him.

“CBN News and Cross-Walk Mag.”

Jesus Came to Open the Eyes of the Blind

More Muslims have become Christians in the last couple decades than in the previous 14 hundred years since Muhammed, and about one of every 3 Muslim-background believers, has a dream or vision prior to their salvation experience.

Doyle describes a phenomenon of person after person seeing the same image: Jesus in a white robe, telling them he loves them, that he died for them, urging them to follow him.....It has happened so many times in Egypt that Christian out-reach groups took out ads in the newspapers. The ads asked, “Have you seen the man in the white robe in your dreams? He has a message for you call this number.”

“Jesus is in hot purist of the spiritually blind. They populate every pathway of every corner of the world. He finds them and touches them. He may use a vision, or a kindness of a friend, or the message of a sermon, or the splendor of creation. But believe this he came to bring sight to the blind.” Max Lucado, “Never Alone” p.73

Sometimes the Earth Beneath Our Feet Does Give Way

Psalm 46:1 God is our refuge and strength, a present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth shall be removed, and though the mountains shall be carried into the midst of the sea;
3 And the waters thereof roar, being troubled, and the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

The Lord is My Shepherd

Psalms 23:1 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

God Hears and Answers

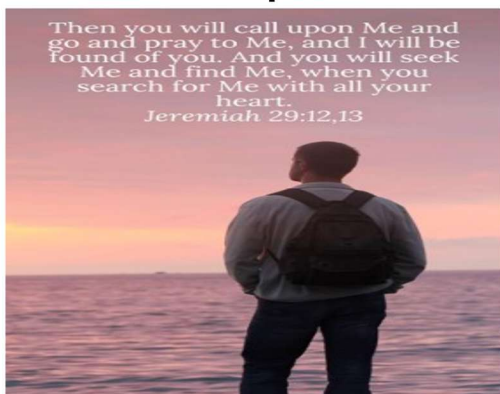

Isaiah 65:24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

Jeremiah 33:3 Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

Matthew 28:19 I am with you always, unto the end of the world. Amen.

Psalms 33:20 Our soul waiteth for the Lord; he is our help and our shield.
21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name

He Wants a Personal Relationship With You

DC 16a And again, verily I say unto you, my friends, I leave these sayings with you, to ponder in your hearts with this commandment which I give unto you, that ye shall call upon me while I am near;

16b draw near unto me, and I will draw near unto you;

16c seek me diligently and ye shall find me;

16d ask and ye shall receive;

16e knock and it shall be opened unto you.

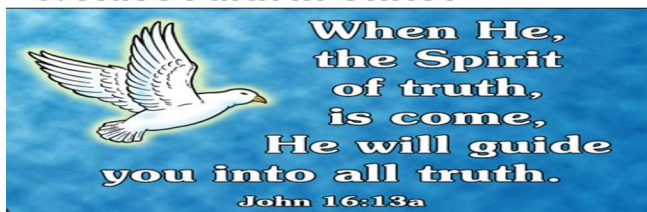

Seek Out the Truth

Moroni 10:4 And when ye shall receive these things, I would exhort you that ye would ask God, the eternal Father, in the name of Christ, if these things are not true;

5 And if ye shall ask with a sincere heart, with real intent, having faith in Christ, he will manifest the truth of it unto you, by the power of the Holy Ghost; and by the power of the Holy Ghost, ye may know the truth of all things.

The Power of the Holy Spirit

1. Search the Scriptures
2. Ponder the scriptures
3. Ask God in the name of Jesus Christ if these things are true
4. Ask with sincere heart
5. Ask with real intent
6. Have Faith in Christ

Believe

Mosiah 2:13 Believe in God; believe that he is, and that he created all things both in heaven and in earth;

14 Believe that he has all wisdom, and all power, both in heaven and in earth;

15 Believe that man doth not comprehend all things which the Lord can comprehend.

16 And again: Believe that ye must repent of your sins and forsake them, and humble yourselves before God; and ask in sincerity of heart that he would forgive you:

17 And now, if you believe all these things, see that ye do them.

Alma 16:151 But behold, if ye will awake and arouse your faculties, even to an experiment upon my words, and exercise a particle of faith; yea, even if ye can no more than desire to believe, let this desire work in you, even until ye believe in a manner that ye can give place for a portion of my words.

Even when we can't see it, we can trust God is at work and

He is good!

11 Nephi 27 And now, my beloved brethren, after ye have gotten into this strait and narrow path, I would ask, if all is done?

28 Behold, I say unto you, Nay; for ye have not come thus far, save it were by the word of Christ, with unshaken faith in him, relying wholly upon the merits of him who is mighty to save;

29 Wherefore, ye must press forward with a steadfastness in Christ, having a perfect brightness of hope, and a love of God and of all men.

30 Wherefore, if ye shall press forward, feasting upon the word of Christ, and endure to the end, behold, thus saith the Father: Ye shall have eternal life.

2 Nephi 14:1 And now behold, my beloved brethren, I suppose that ye ponder somewhat in your hearts, concerning that which we should do, after ye have entered in by the way.

2 But behold, why do ye ponder these things in your hearts? Do ye not remember that I said unto you, that after ye had received the Holy Ghost, ye could speak with the tongue of angels?

God's Words = The Scriptures = Are True

Gen. 19:31 the Lord rained upon Sodom, and upon Gomorrah; for the angels called upon the name of the Lord for brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven. 32 And thus they overthrew those cities and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground. 33 But it came to pass, when Lot fled, his wife looked back from behind him, and became a pillar of salt.

Archaeological Findings at Tall el-Hammam

Evidence of Destruction

The evidence found at Tall el-Hammam includes extreme heating on skeletal remains and pottery fragments, which may point to a high-energy event similar to what is described in the biblical narrative of Sodom's destruction.

Notably, the presence of Trinitite, a glassy substance formed by intense heat, has been identified in the pottery, further supporting the theory of a catastrophic event.

Additionally, the skeletal remains show signs of being incinerated, with some bodies exhibiting scorch marks, suggesting a sudden and extreme heat blast.

What Was Found Between Nuweiba (PI-Hahiroth) and Saraf al-Bal = An Underwater Bridge

The US National Geophysical Data Center describes a distinct underwater land bridge which extends from coast to coast across the Red Sea from Nuweiba to Saraf al-Bal. The greatest depth is 100 metres (328 feet deep) at the points at which data was gathered. However there are 9 kms between the sampling points where readings were not taken. By extrapolation the deepest the water can be between these points is 200 metres. (656 feet deep) From the Saudi coast the water is as shallow as 87 m (284 ft.) four kilometres out from the Saudi coast. The gradient of slope between the two is as little as a 2.2 metre vertical differential over 100 metres horizontally. Twelve hundred metres from the Nuweiba coast in the west the depth reading was 28 metres. From that point to the next reading the depth is 82 metres and sea floor is largely flat descending no more than a slope gradient of 8% over 9 kms. But in most stretches of the sea floor the slope gradient is no more than 6.4%. An Israeli survey done of the sea bottom indicated the mean average slope gradient was 12% while the steepest gradient on the east side was 15%. The New Zealand regulations for slope coefficients for a disability ramp range from 7% to 18% maximum. (US regulations allow a range of 8.3 to 12.5%). The sea bed between Nuweiba and Saraf al-Bal would meet the requirements for disability ramps in both NZ and USA.

Relatively speaking the sea bed over this land bridge is extremely flat, very broad (at least 2kms in width), largely devoid of under-sea vegetation, no rock outcrops and largely covered with sand and undersea gravels. There are corals growing along the coastlines. The distance varies from coastline to coastline from 14.5 kms at the shortest point to 22 kms at the widest point of the Red Sea.

So, at its deepest the land bridge it is 656 feet deep

Underwater Land Bridge

Bathymetric data collected by the Royal Norwegian Navy (1998) reveal an underwater ridge stretching from Nuweiba to Saudi Arabia: average depth 45–60 m versus surrounding depths of 700+ m. Computer models run at the University of Oklahoma (J. P. Christie, J. Geophys. Res. 2009) show that a sustained east-north-east wind of 63–74 km/h could expose that ridge for 4–6 hours—consistent with Exodus 14:21, “The LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind all night.”

From the: Oahspe Study of the Red Sea Crossing

There IS a Land Bridge off Nuweiba

|| There have been some "controversies" about the depth of the underwater landbridge that extends across the Gulf of Aqaba from the beach at Nuweiba -- and in May of 2000 a group from Australia and New Zealand went to the site and did extensive testing using Simrad CE32 Chart Plotter plus GPS to carry out depth soundings. It seems that the British Admiralty maps are inaccurate and unreliable -- our new tests matched the results of the Israeli Marine Geology Mapping & Tectonics Division...The Israelis report, "There IS a land bridge off Nuweiba" -- but we must remember that the Exodus happened over 3,400 years ago, and the underwater landbridge will have eroded and deteriorated over the years.....||

retrieved 18 Mar, 08.

Landbrige Confirmation:

|| March 27, 2005. We discovered that there is indeed an extremely gradual slope out to sea of about 1 in 14 as it goes out from Nuweiba, and about 1 in 10 as it rises back up to Saudi Arabia. Ian commented on how smooth the pathway was as well. Usually a seabed would be quite undulating, but we could see from the screen how easy it would have been for the Israelites to cross on such a smooth pathway. After returning from Egypt and evaluating information his company collected there, Jerry Harned said, "I have plotted a route across the Gulf of Aquaba from the Nuweiba side to the Saudi Arabian side that allows for an 8% grade. He said that his plot is based upon a recent depth chart published by Dr. John Hall of the Israeli Geological Survey." He admits that his calculation method may be primitive and that the results need expert review, but they are encouraging.

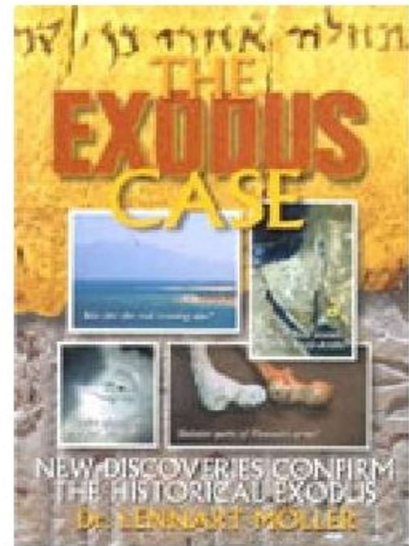

Our results also made sense, in light of this comment from the Israeli Marine Geophysicist and Head of the GSI's Marine Geology, Mapping & Tectonics Division. "In answer to your message to me via Ya'akov Arkin, there is a land bridge off Nuweiba. It rises to depths of slightly more than 850 m, with depths of greater than a kilometer to the north and south." That made sense, as the ETOPO5 satellite map and the British Admiralty Chart have since been declared inaccurate.

Talking about the same formation other experts don't call it a land bridge. For example the Marine Geophysicist, & Head of the M.G., M. & T. Division said bluntly, "Your land bridge simply doesn't exist." However, he doesn't deny that the formation exists. Apparently the argument is, "does a 1/2 mile deep ridge constitute a land-bridge?" Either way, there's no doubt anymore that there is a smooth pathway across the Gulf of Aqaba at this place with a very steep drop off on either side....||

The discovery of Mount Sinai has been academically confirmed by Dr Lennart Moller of Stockholm, Sweden, and six other academic researchers, in his highly acclaimed book, 'The Exodus Case'.

The seven researchers included:

1. Dr. Lennart Moller, Medical Research Scientist, Professor Karolinska Institute, Stockholm, Sweden.
2. Dr. Manfred Bietak, Egyptologist, Professor, University of Vienna, Austria, and the Austrian Archaeological Institute in Cairo, Egypt
3. Professor Ken Kitchen, Egyptologist, Emeritus Professor, University of Liverpool, England
4. Dr. Ebba M. Doring, Archaeosteological Research Laboratory, Stockholm University, Sweden. 5. Professor Alan Millard, Rankin Professor of Hebrew & Ancient Semitic Language University of Liverpool, England.

6. Dr. Gregor Hodgson, Marine Biologist, Professor (Visiting), University of California, Los Angeles; U.S.A.

There is Always Those Who Do Not Want to Believe

Many have tried to discredit Ron Wyatt's work. They say they will not accept finding unless:

1. It is an accredited excavation report, with an institutional endorsement from recognized Egyptological authorities
2. Must have an artifact registry.
3. Must have a peer-reviewed publication.

But despite their efforts to ignore Ron Wyatt's findings, new information continues to bear witness to his findings.

Recent private expeditions have referenced advanced sonar scanning and ROV (remotely operated vehicle) imaging technology.

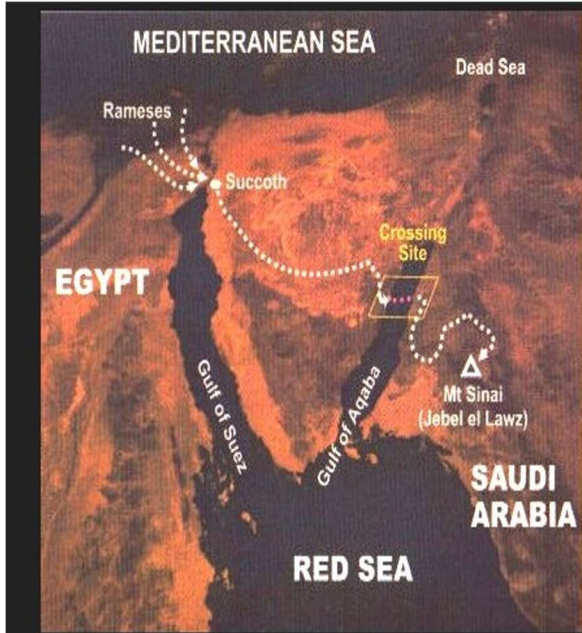

Press statements describe "anomalous formations" or "significant objects,"

Science & Nature

New scientific research and underwater archaeology have revealed compelling evidence that could validate the account of Exodus.

While no conclusive evidence has ever been accepted by everyone, the overlap of submarine discoveries, computer simulations, and fresh archaeological investigation indicates that maybe there is some truth to the ancient account of the Red Sea crossing.

What About the Crossing of the Red Sea

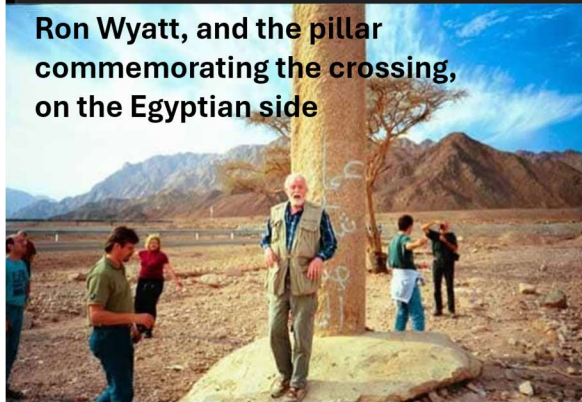

Ron Wyatt's crossing site extends from the beach at Nuweiba!

ABOVE: Ron Wyatt's crossing site is located in the Gulf of Aqaba. There is only ONE PLACE along the west coast of the Gulf of Aqaba that is big enough to hold 1-2 million people, and that is the beach at Nuweiba which is large enough to clearly be seen from outer space. When Ron went scuba diving at this location, he located a natural underwater landbridge that crossed the gulf and coral-covered chariot wheels and coral-covered skeletons!

The Matching Pillars

BELOW: Ron said that there were matching pillars on both sides of the crossing site, and that these pillars were put here by King Solomon to commemorate the crossing site. This is the one on the Egyptian side — (the one on the Saudi side, as you can see in Ron's videos, has been removed and a marker has been put in its place). This striking photo of Ron and the commemorative pillar on the beach at Nuweiba were taken by Mike Haas who went along on Ron's 1997 fall tour trip . . .

Coral-Covered Chariot Wheels!

This is the very first time in human history that anyone has ever found the physical evidence to prove that the Exodus really happened! NO ONE ELSE HAS EVER FOUND CORAL-COVERED CHARIOT WHEELS IN ANY PORTION OF THE RED SEA UNTIL NOW!

Not Once In The History Of The World Has Anything In The Bible Ever Been Found Untrue

It Is Common For Critics To Assert That The Bible Is Not True. Can This Assertion Be Proven By Evidence?

Robert Clifton Robinson was converted to Christianity by a near death experience. He is currently engaged in Christian Apologetics, writing and publishing books to defend the truth of the Historical Jesus as presented in the New Testament and many other subjects that prove the truth of the Bible. He says, "If I had found anything that was not true in the past 50 years, I would still be an Atheist."

Believe and Obey Be Transformed

Doctrine and Covenants, Section 76:3e-h 3e Now this caused us to marvel, for it was given unto us of the Spirit, and while we meditated upon these things, the Lord touched the eyes of our understandings, and they were opened, and the glory of the Lord shone round about; 3f and we beheld the glory of the Son, on the right hand of the Father, and received of his fullness; and saw the holy angels, and they who are sanctified before his throne, worshiping God and the Lamb, who worship him for ever and ever. 3g And now, after the many testimonies which have been given of him, this is the testimony, last of all, which we give of him, that he lives; for we saw him, even on the right hand of God; 3h and we heard the voice bearing record that he is the Only Begotten of the Father; that by him, and through him, and of him, the worlds are and were created; and the inhabitants thereof are begotten sons and daughters unto God.
